Dear Sirs:

JOAN KANE, CLERK
U.S. DIST. COURT, WESTERN DIST. OKLA.
BY naa, DEPUTY

So, I tried to pay the $350.00 court cost, this morning. It seems like there is no way I can. Every time I try I can't. This time my case manager said you are too close to getting out. So Wednesday when I discharge, I will come to the department of Treasury + hand over the cash for it. Plus the last $55 to get it all paid off.

Sorry, it has taken me so long. But from in here (prison) you are fighting a losing battle.

I am doing all this for my kids + grand kids. So please consider them before you throw it all out. I want to leave them more than just bad memories of my past. I'm 66 years old now so my time is short on this earth. Any money from this will be a blessing.

Sincerely yours:
